

14:00 – 14:10 Welcome and Introductions

Anne Charreyron-Perchet, French Ministry of Ecology, Energy, Sustainable Development and Town and Country Planning, Government of France

Cynthia Rosenzweig, Co-Chair, Climate and Cities, Columbia University Earth Institute and Goddard Institute of Space Studies (GISS), and Head Climate Impacts Group, NASA GISS

14:10 – 14:30 “Mayors’ IPCC”: Emerging Findings for Developing Country Cities

Cynthia Rosenzweig

14:30 – 14:50 Post-Copenhagen: Global Institutional Structure for Climate and Cities in Africa, Asia, and Latin America

Shagun Mehrotra, Managing Director, Climate and Cities, Columbia University and NASA GISS and Faculty Fellow, Columbia University

14:50 – 15:10 Training of Mayors in China and Lessons for Developing Country Cities

Stephen Hammer, Director, Urban Energy Program, Center for Energy, Marine Transportation and Public Policy, Columbia University

15:10 – 15:30 In-depth Climate Risk Assessment for New York and Challenges for African Cities

William Solecki, Director, Institute for Sustainable Cities, City University of New York, and member Scientific Committee, 5th Urban Research Symposium

15:30 – 15:50 Open Debate: Cities in IPCC and Cities’ IPCC

Shagun Mehrotra, Moderator

Claudia E. Natenzon, Professor, Universidad de Buenos Aires, and FLACSO Argentina; and

Ademola Omojola, Associate Professor, Department of Geography, University of Lagos

15:50 – 16:00 Wrap-up and Next Steps

Anne Charreyron-Perchet and Cynthia Rosenzweig